

Enlist Under This Flag

Join the new "regiment" that will be formed SEPTEMBER 11TH.

Young "soldiers of business" preparing to take their places on the firing line in the army of industry!

You will be drilled in shorthand, bookkeeping, typewriting, spelling, penmanship, business English, letter writing and general office work.

When you have finished you will know how to take care of yourself in life's battle—how to win a place for yourself with some good firm that pays good salaries, and promotes its young men and women to good permanent positions.

Come in at once and let us show you the plans for the new "regiment."

HUTCHINSON FURNISHED WITH OUTSTANDING

On account of the sudden illness of Governor Hunt, he was unable to be present at the closing meeting of his campaign for renomination at the democratic primary on Tuesday. When the announcement of his illness was made by A. S. Mills, who presided at the meeting at the city hall plaza last night, there were many expressions of disappointment. The oratorical program was further shortened by the absence of L. D. Shumhart who it had been announced would speak.

But Judge W. L. Barnum was there and as he is the chief orator of the government campaign, the program did not greatly suffer. The audience, or a part of it was so much in sympathy with Mr. Barnum, that it could not withhold its applause at times. It emitted it before anybody but the applauders knew what the speaker was about to say. It was about the "hair-trigger" applause that has ever encouraged a local Democratic.

But Judge Barnum has such a pleasing manner and such an interesting way of presenting political subjects that even those who disagree with him feel that they have been entertained, if not edified.

The issue, he said, was not one of men, but one of principles. If Governor Hunt and George A. Olney should suddenly desert the list by the way of Thomas Jefferson, Andrew Jackson and Abraham Lincoln, a blind man can see that the objective was Governor Hunt and the applauders could hardly await the pronouncement of his name. In his reference to Andrew Jackson, Judge Barnum described him as a "living exponent of these principles." This was, of course, a slight, Judge Barnum is not a native of Arkansas in whose remote recesses, it is said, quadrennial elections still disclose votes for Andrew Jackson for president of the United States.

It was observed that Judge Barnum had another way of touching the heart strings of the applauders—by a sinister reference to the great corporations to whom he alluded as the "classes," as opposed to the masses. Not one of these references missed fire. The most heartfelt satisfaction was expressed every time the speaker figuratively kicked the down-and-out corporations, till their ribs cracked again. It was a cruel chorus of applauders.

The latter part of the speech was given to a reply to the address of Judge Baker at an Olney meeting last Saturday night and Senator O. S. Stapley the following Monday night when they attacked the administration of Governor Hunt. The reply was perhaps as ingenious as the attacks, and that is not necessarily inventing it with great virtue. Political speeches are not, as a rule, supposed to prevent the other side in a clear light.

Chairman Mills confirmed much that Judge Barnum had said about the governor and he had known him longer; he had given him his first publicity as a public character and had known him intimately since. He concluded his eulogium by introducing Tax Commissioner Zander, who proceeded to an elaborate, but brief talk on the subject of taxation which has been made one of the issues of this campaign.

Eliminating the one detail that might explain the exchange of shots between herself and Mrs. Manuel Gonzales, Zelma Hutter otherwise told a clear story of her difficulties with the Mexican woman at the juvenile hearing yesterday.

WOMAN TELLS WHY SHE FANNED A GUN

The sixteen-year-old ward of the court declared that she was in part responsible for the feud that exists between the Gonzales and the Horowitz in whose custody she has been for the past few years. The girl said that the Gonzales children had been in the habit of coming to the Horowitz ranch and that she had taken occasion to send them home. Since that time, she said, she has been insulted and annoyed not only by the Gonzales family but by Mexican men who she declared had not gotten very far with their hand-to-hand tactics with her. On being held up by a masked Mexican she declared she had torn the mask from his face and by a certain scar would be able to identify him. Always she has had to carry a pistol. On the day of the shooting Zelma stated she had been hunting when the Gonzales woman opened fire which she returned. Neither were injured, but Mr. Gonzales had reported the matter and had the girl arrested for disturbing the peace. The case was transferred from the justice to the juvenile court.

Here Is Foot Comfort

Worried feet cause half the ills and discomforts that harass the men and women of our age.

The Scholl "Foot-Easer" is a remedy. It is a scientific arch support or cushion that supports the muscles and tendons and gives them strength to carry the weight of the body at the foot arch.

It does away with all nervous and muscular strain and quickly replaces the natural elasticity to the foot and prevents flat-foot with its painful consequences.

Makes walking or standing absolutely comfortable, keeps shoes in shape and gives the instep a graceful arch.

The Scholl "Foot-Easer" is made of two German Silver Springs, leather covered, and is springy, flexible and self-adjusting to all feet and can be easily slipped into any shoe.

They do not need tacking or pasting but are easily changed from one pair to another.

If you have any foot trouble whatsoever the Scholl "Foot-Easer" will give you instant relief as well as rest and comfort.

All sizes for men and women, $2.00 per pair. We are headquarters for foot comfort and the Scholl "Foot-Easer" is one of the principal means of converting it to you. Let us prove it.

WITH THE SPIRIT OF LAST YEAR'S SUCCESSFUL HOUSEKEEPERS' WEEK IN MIND—

This Year's Housekeepers' Week Continues Monday

We are searching the markets every season to secure the best values for this occasion, and we have been fortunate in securing merchandise before the present advanced prices. Every economical housekeeper should attend this selling event and secure special purchases.

People Like to Go to Houses where they can be Perfectly Natural

It is the idea of this little city of 47 complete stores in one building—this hall of music, art and hospitalities—to be not only always attractive for sightseers through its exhibition of artistic, useful and new things, but also agreeable.

FOR ITS HOMELINESS

In that one may, without interference, leisurely take a morning exercise in walking or an afternoon rest in our rest-room, or be simply a looker-on upon scenes of city life in which interesting and well-known people are always among the spectators.

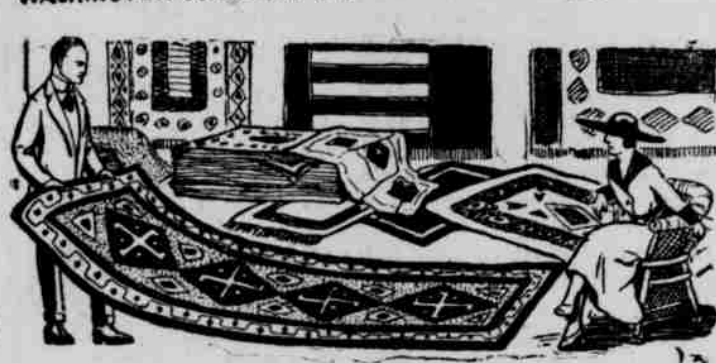

The safety of the building, cleanliness and fresh air is all that can be desired. This store is a place to feed the mind, rest the body, and to do about everything except to sleep. KORRICKS.

SHAW CANDIDATE JUSTICE OF PEACE

James T. Shaw is making the race before the republican voters for nomination for justice of the peace of West Phoenix precinct. "Jimmie" as he is popularly known by his friends, is a regular republican worker.

He has lived in Arizona for 27 years, and is not only widely known in Phoenix, but in other parts of the state. While working as a machinist at Jerome a number of years ago he was injured in an accident in which he has lost his right arm. This has incapacitated him from performing many ordinary pursuits of labor. Mr. Shaw feels that he is well equipped to fill the office of justice of the peace, and because of his physical incapacity he has during the past few years been a close student in equipping himself to make a living by other than physical labor.

GRAFTING ON GRAFTER WAS ACOSTA'S LINE

Impersonating an officer of the law and promising protection to bootleggers for a percentage of their gains, has been the practice of Simon Acosta, according to Deputy Sheriff George Sears who arrested the man at New enable.

Town yesterday

Acosta, it is said, has apprehended a number of violators of the prohibition amendment, and agreed to let them go free provided they reward him for his consideration. He is declared to have reaped a neat little sum in this manner. He pleaded guilty to the offense in the justice court and was given a ten days sentence in the county jail and fined $10.

The Y. M. C. A. best place in city to room—outdoor sleeping quarters, shower baths, swimming pool. Rates reasonable. (Adv.)
